TIJUANA ACTUAL

Encuentros con la Tijuana que está más allá de las zonas turísticas

Educational Field Trip - Conducted in Spanish

Re-scheduled to Saturday, May 12, 2007
Room for 9 more participants!

Response to the first TIJUANA ACTUAL field trip was so enthusiastic, we've organized a second trip, with an entirely new itinerary!

Social anthropologist Víctor Clark Alfaro, human rights activist and longtime Tijuana resident, social observer and commentator, will be back to continue introducing us to a Tijuana seldom experienced by those from north of the border.

Join us to learn about complex issues affecting Tijuana today and interact in Spanish at a professional level!

All activities will be conducted in Spanish. Transportation will be via 25-passenger minibus.

Tentative Schedule and Highlights:

8:15 - Meet "Mexicoach" minibus at the "E" Street trolley station in Chula Vista

- Indigenous peoples residing in Tijuana: A visit with a Mixtec community
- How safe is Tijuana? A meeting with representatives from Tijuana's Policía Municipal
- Life on Tijuana's streets: A visit with staff and residents at the Desarrollo Integral de la Familia (DIF) shelter for street children
- Lunch & debriefing discussion at the "Casa del Mole"

3:00 – Return to US

COST: $50 (includes lunch)

ENROLLMENT: Limited to 22, first come, first served basis. Must have Advanced proficiency in Spanish. Pre-registration required.

IMPORTANT! Participants MUST bring valid documentation for travel into/from Mexico. A US passport (or comparable documentation, if not a US citizen) is preferred.

INFORMATION: Lynn Eddy-Zambrano, Outreach Coordinator, leddyz@projects.sdsu.edu, (619) 594-8748.

DEADLINE TO REGISTER: May 2.

Participants will be sent a confirmation letter finalizing all logistical details.
