

FOREIGN LANGUAGE COUNCIL OF SAN DIEGO

Rodenberg Teacher Scholarship

The Foreign Language Council of San Diego (FLCSD) has established this scholarship to provide financial support for teachers, employed as full-time foreign language instructors or teaching an equivalent load, who plan to pursue language interests in order to improve their competency and skills in foreign language teaching and to augment their knowledge of culture and language.

FLCSD sponsors one scholarship to a teacher for up to $600.

- The money must be used as tuition or fees to an accredited school, professional conference, foreign language workshop(s), or to purchase materials for a special foreign language project to be shared with colleagues.

The applicant

- must have held a paid FLCSD teacher membership for three consecutive years, including the current year (2012)
- must submit a report to the FLCSD Board of Directors within six weeks following the use of the scholarship money
- must attend the FLCSD Annual Fall Conference (using part of the scholarship monies to pay for conference) and give a brief report on the use of the money
- must use the money for the intended purpose within the 2012 calendar year
- is responsible to repay the scholarship monies to the FLCSD treasurer, if any of the above stated conditions are not complied with

The application must contain

- 1. the completed application form
- 2. a detailed description of how you would use and benefit from the FLCSD Rodenberg Teacher Scholarship, if you were named as the recipient
- 3. a letter of recommendation in support of the proposed project

Please send your complete application to:
